

Reffett Associates

A Leader In Executive Search

Toni Puri named Executive Vice President of Supply Chain of Schwan's Food Company

May 2017 — Reffett Associates is pleased to announce that they have assisted in the selection of Supply Chain Executive Tony Puri to be Executive Vice President of Supply Chain of Schwan's Company. The search was led by the Reffett Associates teams in Seattle and Dallas.

Puri is a Supply Chain executive with over 20 years' experience at many manufacturing and global supply chain companies. His most recent position was Vice President of Global Manufacturing at CSM Bakery Solutions in Atlanta, GA.

Puri received a Master's of Business Administration, Marketing and Finance, from Rockford College in Illinois, and a Master of Science and a Bachelor of Science in Biochemical and Chemical Engineering Bachelor from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, NJ.

Schwan's Company is a multibillion-dollar, privately owned company with approximately 11,000 employees. Based in Marshall, Minnesota, the company sells frozen foods from home delivery trucks, in grocery store freezers, by mail, and to the food service industry. The company produces, markets, and distributes products developed under brands such as Schwan's, Red Baron, Freschetta, Tony's, Mrs. Smith's, Edwards, Pagoda, Larry's, and many others. The business was known as The Schwan Food Company from 2003 to 2017. The new name, Schwan's Company, was announced in April 2017.

standing out from the crowd