Executive Update

Reffett Associates has been selected by Strack & Van Til to assist them in a search for a President & Chief Executive Officer

Seattle, WA – Reffett Associates is pleased to announce that they have been selected to assist Strack & Van Til in their search for a new President & CEO.

One of Chicago's leading grocery chains, Strack & Van Til operates more than 38 supermarkets in and around Chicago and northern Indiana. Stores operate under the banners of Strack & Van Til, Town & Country Food Market, and Ultra Foods. The regional grocery chain offers fresh and packaged foods and has delicatessen and bakery divisions in each of its stores. Its websites offer weekly circulars and coupons, as well as feature recipes, cooking videos, meal planners, and food-related articles. The company's majority owner is Chicago-based grocery distributor Central Grocers which also serves other major independent supermarkets in the Chicagoland area.

Strack & Van Til is committed to outstanding quality, compelling prices, and an attractive and inviting shopping experience. The combination of a unique retail concept, outstanding portfolio of locations, and superior product offerings differentiates the company from its competition and generates strong customer loyalty. The chain has sales of approximately $1.4B from 38 stores and has very strong brand identity, with significant growth opportunities. The company is located in the Chicago Metro Area.
